Mrs. Isabelle M. Stover
Reef Point
Bar Harbor, Maine

Dear Mrs. Stover:

Your letters of May 28th received this morning, yesterday being a holiday, no mail was delivered, so I hasten to reply to the effect that I do NOT have Susan McKelvey's book on the Lilac. I know it seems familiar, but I believe it has been on some suggested purchases. I have made a search of the books turned over to me by Mrs. Clark as well as the books in my office, and the card index and find no mention of this book. So, if still available, I should like very much to have it and hope it can be had.

I shall not answer the other letter until tomorrow when I have had more time to digest it, and perhaps to get some hints on how the information is received here. This afternoon I am having a bus load of colored high school students to see the gardens, so must make haste and get this off to you by air mail.

Very sincerely,
