Dearest Mildred:

You will doubtless remember the extraordinarily good lighting of a tapestry inside the door of the Huntington house and our discussion of its successful illuminating made by the Marquis Jacques de Veyrac who installed the apparatus about which I have already written you.

Marquis de Veyrac has sent me a copy of the letter which he has already dispatched to you telling you of his forthcoming visit to the States about the end of next month. Will you write him as to whether or not you can receive him, as he is well worth seeing and his lighting conditions are not only efficient but excellent.

Yours ever,
