So very so often, my dearest dear, I allow myself the treat of a note to you which has not a word of business, was a single question in it - Your New Years telegram was so good to get, as the distance is great in miles - but never in affection -

All seems to go well here, the sun pours on my back as I write you, Clemmy is fussing away house keeping, & we are contented in your little house - How I wish you & Robert were here, away from colds & sleep, but you might find it pretty tranquil after Washington in these days -

The little gentians may be useful as a book mark, easy to lose, & of no consequence except that they carry me to you - The three pictures look at me to my daily satisfaction - Yours Trix
