

REEF POINT
BAR HARBOR, MAINE

My so very dear, it seems hardly possible that this little welcome should be able to welcome you to this part of the world - It is a long dream come true, & the only question is — not of my gratitude — but whether you may be disappointed in how little we have done, compared to what we hope for.

Open arms will await you, when you are ready for them, & such a hug of deep affection as the years have strengthened - Poor Robert, still sitting in the Washington gridiron, like Sh.
Laurence - Your devoted & eager
