Dear Mrs. Farrand,

Thank you for your letters of the twenty-first and twenty-third, and most particularly for your friendly thought in sending me the Italian envelope, which will accompany me on my journey. I am most grateful!

I am so glad to hear that you are looking forward to the arrival of the Tiger. He will be off to you very shortly.

Thank you for sending me the accounts of the indebtedness to both Beatrix Farrand and Beatrix Farrand, Agent. Unless these accounts have been revised by June first, Miss Carpenter will send you two checks to cover the amounts as stated in your letter of the twenty-third.

Mr. Patterson has written me that he thinks his account will not exceed $600., so unless we hear from him to the contrary, a check will be sent to him for this amount early in June.

The conference was a great success in every way, even though I say so myself. Everything went very smoothly, and it was most gratifying, as I think we can now feel with real justification that the scholarly activities of Dumbarton Oaks have been properly launched.

Again, many thanks for the envelope, and with my very best wishes to you,

Ever yours sincerely,

P. S. I do think that it would be wiser if the Book Account with Beatrix Farrand, Agent, were turned over to Mr. Patterson.
