

1624, CRESCENT PLACE, N. W.

WASHINGTON.

May 7, 1937

Dear Mildred —

You gave us all such a rarely beautiful evening last night that I must send you and Robert a little word of appreciation and thanks — It was a bright interlude in a world that is trying to be as droll as possible —

Yours sincerely,

Agnes E. Meyer