Dear Miss Sweeney:

The second volume of Loudon's Perennials has come to me and so I hope your second volume has also gone to Dumbarton Oaks. Let me know when you hear it has arrived as I want to pay for it.

Next, please send me as soon as possible your remembrance of your copy of the Kip - whether or not it has been collated and if the plates are in good condition or if they are washed copies like the Le Rouge; also if the binding is good and in good condition, as a four-volume Kip has been offered to me and it looks to me a much better purchase than the one you have. Do you know what was paid for your copy, or how we could find out?

Forgive a brief note as I want to write air-mail at once to Mrs. Bliss as they are keeping the four-volume Kip for me in England.

Yours sincerely,

Beatrice Farrand
