Miss Anne Sweeney
3245 "S" Street
Washington, D. C.

Dear Miss Sweeney:

Let me know how things go with you, as I have been thinking much of you and wondering how your tiresome cold and antrum were treating you. Your silence makes me a little uneasy, just as Mrs. Bliss' own silence fills me with some qualms.

As you know, Mrs. Bliss is quite enthusiastic on the subject of your journey to New York for print hunting, and with your $100.00 petty cash for a revolving fund, it would seem as though you might get a start on some more nice material.

While the letter to you goes ostensibly as an inquiry for the catalogue house, its real purpose is to find out how you do and whether better and freer of pain.

Yours ever sincerely,

BF:CMT
