My very dear,

The door is slowly closing at the end of Max's journey, but we are mercifully able to keep him fairly comfortable & free of pain - It is impossible to tell how long the heart & kidneys will hold out, but one trusts he may not have much farther to go - You will of course hear from time to time, & as he has told me long ago just what he wanted done, it can be arranged as he wished it - just quietly & alone in his own garden - You can see how difficult telephoning would be, & so you will understand as you always have & will - Dear N. (rob), it is such a comfort & support to be sure of your affection & help -

Your devoted
Trix.
