Mr. S. James Todd
The Conard-Pyle Co.
West Grove, Pa.

Dear Mr. Todd:

Thank you for your letter regarding the roses which you can and cannot supply. I enclose the definite order for those you can supply and will try and get the ones you cannot supply elsewhere, and will let you know later whether or not we have to accept your substitutions.

Naturally you will not wish to ship the roses as early in the season as this. Will you let me know what time you are likely to want to send them so that I may notify Mr. Bryce to whom they go.

Yours very truly,

BEATRIX FARRAND
