Dear Miss Sweeney:

Mrs. Farrand asks me to say that she highly approves the card and letter recently sent you by Mr. Patterson (copy of which he gave to her). She hopes to have your reaction to this before she leaves next Thursday for Boston and points west.

The autumn here is superb, I think I have never seen such glorious color, and the leaves seem to want to stay on the trees longer than ever before. I wish you might come to Maine in the fall of the year and see how pretty it is.

Sincerely yours,

Isabell M. Stover

Secretary
