Monday
May 8th
1650, ORLANDO ROAD,
SAN MARINO.
CALIFORNIA.

Dear Mildred

On Wednesday -
the 10th - I'm expecting a youngster I'm hopefully looking over as a possible assistant. He will stay at 1650 over night.

Then on Tuesday the 16th Tom Farnsworth
arrives to spend a week.

Those are the only
days when the rooms are engaged at Hotel 1650, and as

each of these quarters is alone - we can
shift here to another room if you and
(or) Robert would condescend to occupy
your former quarters
and would like
them at a time
either of those men
are here.

So please come.
if you can & come to - for nothing would please me more than to have you here where Trist is away, except to have her here at the same time.

Mostly most affectionately yours
Wm
