OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

October 23, 1941.

Miss Beatrix Farrand,
Reef Point,
Bar Harbor, Maine.

Dear Miss Farrand:

Replying to your letter of October 20, so far as I know now Mr. Drury will be in Washington most of November, except for the week beginning November 10th. However, he has all day budget hearings scheduled for the 3rd, 4th and 5th.

Mr. Drury is in the West now, but is expected back next week, and if he has made any change in his plans for November, I shall be glad to let you know.

Sincerely yours,

Nette A. Benson
Secretary to the Director.
