

A. 38
31.1.

Washington, D. C.,
31 W Street N.E.,
January 28, 1938.

Hon. and Mrs. Robt. Wood Bliss,
3101 R. Street N.W.
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. and Mrs. Bliss:

For you to make possible, through your generosity, the two delightful concerts which were rendered at the Georgetown Branch of the Public Library, was a beautiful thing to do. I am sure that everyone present was charmed with the attractive setting and the excellent music. The flowers were a rare treat in themselves and I want you to know that the thought, work and time spent on these musicales were deeply appreciated. It was a rare privilege to have the opportunity of attending such lovely recitals. Thank you so much for your great kindness.

Sincerely yours,
Ruth A. Powell