

DUMBARTON OAKS

ART • NATURE • SCHOLARSHIP

Hagia Sophia: The History of the Building and the Building in History

Byzantine Studies Zoom Webinar

September 1, 2020

- |                  |   |
|------------------|---|
| 11:00–11:05 a.m. | Welcome by Tom Cummins and Anna Stavrakopoulou, Dumbarton Oaks  |
| 11:05–11:10 a.m. | Dumbarton Oaks Statement by Elizabeth Bolman, Case Western Reserve University and Dumbarton Oaks                                |
| 11:10–11:22 a.m. | Bissera Pentcheva, Stanford UniversityHagia Sophia and the Liquidity of Light and Sound                              |
| 11:22–11:34 a.m. | Ioli Kalavrezou, Harvard University and Dumbarton OaksDumbarton Oaks, Hagia Sophia, and Its Historical Mosaics       |
| 11:34–11:46 a.m. | Robert Nelson, Yale UniversityHagia Sophia: A Modern Monument?   |
| 11:46–11:58 a.m. | Tugba Tanyeri-Erdemir, University of PittsburghReconquest of Hagia Sophia: Official Discourse and Popular Narratives |
| 12:00–12:15 p.m. | Panelists' Discussion   |
| 12:15–12:30 p.m. | Q&A with the Public   |