

Beatrix Farrand colloquium

March 8, 2013

Program

8:45: Registration and coffee

9:15: Welcome: John Beardsley, Director of Garden and Landscape Studies, Dumbarton Oaks

9:20: Thaisa Way, Associate Professor of Landscape Architecture, University of Washington. "Emerging Ecological Practices in the Early 20th Century"

10:05: Betsy Anderson, Landscape Historian and MLA Candidate, University of Washington. "Succession Accelerated: Beatrix Farrand's Entrance Drive at The Mount"

10:50: break

11:00: Patrick Chassé, Landscape Architect, Mt. Desert Island, Maine. "Beatrix Jones: Design-Build in Maine"

11:45: Robin Veder, Associate Professor of Humanities and Art History/Visual Culture, Pennsylvania State University. "Beatrix Farrand's Rhythmic Design"

12:30: lunch break

2:15: Michael Van Valkenburgh, President/ CEO, Michael Van Valkenburgh Associates, Inc. "In Farrand's Shadow: Working at Princeton"

3:00: Dennis Bracale, Landscape Architect and Historian, Bar Harbor, Maine. "Farrand and the Rockefellers: Design and Inspiration of the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Garden"

3:45: break

4:00: Judith B. Tankard, Independent Scholar/Landscape Historian. "Final Chapter: From Reef Point to Garland Farm"

4:45 Discussion

5:30 Reception in the Museum Courtyard